Reasons for Allowance

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

Claims 1-2, 4-6, 8-10, 12-14, 16-18, 20-22, and 24 are allowed because the prior art of record does not teach or suggest a method/apparatus/circuit/process for synthesizing a clock distribution circuit within an IC device in the manner as recited in the claims; the method/apparatus/circuit/process having a combination of steps/elements including, among other things, the following limitation recited in claim 1 and similarly recited claims 5, 9, 13, 17 and 21:

Compensating for the clock of said inter-functional clock distribution network by inserting said delaying circuit at a terminal of said inter-function dock distribution network wherein each of said functional circuits is connected to said inter-functional clock distribution network and said delay circuit includes a plurality of delaying buffer circuits that are serially connected by a plurality of interconnecting wiring segments, each delaying buffer circuit having a first increment of delay and said interconnecting wiring segments having a second increment of delay.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance".
